GOVERNOR PHIL BREDESEN
PAPERS, 2003-2011

COLLECTION SUMMARY

Creator:

Bredesen, Phil, 1943-

Inclusive Dates:

Scope & Content:

Governor Phil Bredesen Papers (2003-2011) represent an official record of the time Bredesen spent in office. Totalling approximately 517 linear feet or 955 boxes, the Bredesen Papers consist of office files, correspondence, photographs, and a large amount of audio/visual materials. Materials in the collection span the years 1975-2012 as a large number of these documents crossed over chronologically from one gubernatorial administration to another. If items or files pertaining to a certain issue carried over from one administration to another, the documents for that topic were filed with the latest administration. This explains why some of the items predate the Bredesen administration. While some themes are contained within a single series, materials relating to several topics of interest run throughout the collection, including but not limited to Title VI (Boxes 41, 479, 484, 592, 769, 821, and 935), Hurricane Katrina (Boxes 478, 545, 760, 935, and 938), and Workers' Compensation (Boxes 45, 480, 573, 592-594, 772, 940). (Please see "Scope & Content" for individual series to view a more detailed description of subjects.)

Administrative/Biographical History

Phillip Norman Bredesen, Jr. served as the 48th Governor of Tennessee. A Democrat, he served as Governor of Tennessee from 2003 to 2011. Prior to that, he served as Mayor of Nashville from 1991 to 1999. Bredesen worked in the health care industry before entering civil service. In 1980, he created HealthAmerica Corp. HealthAmerica Corp. employed over 6,000 individuals and was based in Nashville, Tennessee. In 1986, the company was sold.

Bredesen was born on November 21, 1943, in Oceanport, New Jersey. He is the son of Philip Norman Bredesen, Sr. and Norma Lucille (Walborn). Bredesen grew up in Shortsville, New York. He received a bachelor's degree in physics from Harvard University in 1967. Bredesen married Susan Cleaves in 1968. They divorced in 1974. Bredesen married Andrea Conte in 1974, and they moved to Nashville, Tennessee, in 1975. He and Conte have one son, Benjamin (b. 1980). Bredesen is an avid hunter, painter, and a licensed pilot. He is a founding member of Nashville's Table, a nonprofit organization that is devoted to diminishing hunger in the community; it collects surplus cooked and perishable food from local restaurants and distributes it to the city's homeless. Bredesen also founded the Land Trust for Tennessee, a nonprofit group that works to preserve traditional family farms in the state.

DETAILED COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

SERIES I. -- BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Series Scope and Content: The Boards and Commissions Office dealt primarily with candidates for appointment to assist in governmental operations. Many boards and commissions regulate personal services performed in the state. Some are official agencies, and others are semiofficial. The governor is usually responsible for appointing a certain number of candidates for vacancies. Joint appointments involving other officials such as the Speaker of the House and Speaker of the Senate may also be responsible for a certain number of seats. Candidates for appointment are evaluated and reviewed based on the qualifications of the nominees.

Series Arrangement: Series is arranged alphabetically to folder level by the familiar subject pertaining to the duties of the board. Each folder will contain all materials relevant to the board such as correspondence, applications, recommendation letters, short biographies, appointments, resignations, oaths of office, and any other materials with which the board may have dealt.

A large number of these documents from past governors were discovered by workers during the 2012 restoration of the ground floor of the State Capitol building. Many of the documents crossed over chronologically from one administration to another. If the documents pertaining to one board member carried over from one administration to another, the documents for that board member were filed with the latest administration. This explains why some of the date ranges precede the Bredesen administration.

SERIES II. -- COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

Series Scope and Content:

The Communications Office was responsible for monitoring news reports concerning issues important to the administration and responding to public records requests. This series includes correspondence, public records requests, and news clippings.

Materials in the Governor's Papers are kept at the State Records Center before being transferred to the Tennessee State Library and Archives. The records center was flooded as a direct result of the torrential rains on May 1-2, 2010. Any items received by the records center prior to May of 2010 are flood-damaged. Some of the materials were harmed by the deluge. Any flood-damaged materials were treated by Belfor, a document restoration company, at the request of the State of Tennessee.

Boxes 89-93 contain materials that are partially restricted. Anyone under 18 years of age may not view these materials (TCA 39-17-911).

Series Arrangement:

The series is arranged alphabetically.

SERIES III. -- CORRESPONDENCE

Series Scope and Content:

The Governor's Correspondence Office was responsible for researching and answering the vast amount of communications received daily by the governor. Therefore, the Correspondence Series comprises the largest amount of material in the collection. Materials cover a wide range of subjects reflecting the concerns of Tennesseans during this period, such as requests by school children for informational materials on Tennessee; requests for Tennessee flags; requests for autographed photographs of the governor; state opinion ballots regarding issues in state government; assistance in securing employment; Dolly Parton Imagination Library program; Governor's Books from Birth Foundation; the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009; workers' compensation; opposition to the death penalty; the TennCare program; congratulatory letters; endorsements of contributors; child support issues, and many others of like concerns.

Several notable items are contained in the Correspondence Series, including valentines to the governor from Pre-K students (Box 465, folder 4) and letters from "God." One such letter (Box 221, folder 6) relates to the abortion issue while another (also in Box 221, folder 6) deals with the then pending execution of Philip Workman. The Workman related correspondence states that Workman "is my son" and there are "no excuses for allowing that execution to take place." The epistle closes by conveying that the reader "will be judged accordingly."

The "53rd leaf removed from 'America's First National Tree'" is housed in the correspondence (Box 124, folder 2). "America's First National Tree" is the creation of folk artist Otok Ben-Hvar (formerly known as Ben Garcia). While Ben-Hvar is more well-known for his firecracker art, he also undertook a project to create "America's First National Tree." In the 1990s, Ben-Hvar asked the governor of each "U.S. State, Territory, Commonwealth and the Mayor of Washington, D.C." to supply him with "a pound of their native soil." He then planted a maple seed in a combination of the state soils. Ben-Hvar traveled with the tree to each state, photographing the tree in front of each state capitol building, and introduced the tree to the U.S. Congress on November 12, 2002.

Two flags (Box 456) are encompassed within the correspondence. The first flag was flown "over the American compound, Camp Phoenix, Afghanistan by the Officers, NCO's, and Soldiers of the 41st Brigade Combat Team during Operation Enduring Freedom, from the 11th of February to the 18th of February, 2007." The second flag is a "Flag of Honor" sent to the governor by Eleanor Salter. The "Flag of Honor" was designed and produced by John Michelotti of Greenwich, Connecticut, and contains the names of everyone who died in the September 11 attacks. Eleanor Salter lost her daughter, Catherine Patricia Salter, in the second attack on the World Trade Center. She was working in New York as assistant vice president/claims administrator for Aon Risk Services, Inc. when the attack occurred. In the aftermath, her mother purchased "Flags of Honor" to send to all of the governors in the United States. Mrs. Salter sent a flag to each U.S. governor asking that they display the flags in their states "in such a manner that the public will be able to view them." Governor Phil Bredesen received the flag and requested that it be flown over Tennessee's State Capitol on Flag Day, June 14, 2005, in memory of Catherine Patricia Salter. Correspondence from Eleanor Salter, a biography of her daughter's life, and a copy of the certificate that Governor Bredesen's office sent to Mrs. Salter are also included.

Materials in the Governor's Papers were stored at the State Records Center before being transferred to the Tennessee State Library and Archives. The records center was flooded as a direct result of the torrential rains on May 1-2, 2010. Some items received by the records center prior to May 2010 are flood-damaged. The largest part of the flood-damaged materials within the Correspondence Series is composed of first term correspondence. These materials were treated by Belfor, a document restoration company, at the request of the State of Tennessee.

Approximately four and one-half cubic feet of the materials were designated as "Personal Correspondence." It appears that this designation refers to how the items were retained and responded to rather than the nature of the articles as these letters cover relatively the same subject matter as the rest of the correspondence. The resources seem to have been kept on file in the Governor's Office by Sandy Fletcher and required some sort of "personal" response from the governor. Because these materials were kept on hand, none of the personal correspondence is flood-damaged.

Series Arrangement:

Series is arranged alphabetically by sender's surname with the exception of personal correspondence which is filed chronologically. Anonymous materials occur at the beginning of the series. Illegible names are included with anonymous submissions. Illegible names where the first letter is legible have been placed at the beginning of the alphabetical listings for that letter. Personal correspondence has been placed at the end of the series.

SERIES V. -- ELECTRONIC RECORDS

Series Scope and Content:

Electronic Records include two Access databases containing records of correspondence sent to Governor Bredesen as well as electronic versions of some Executive Orders, Proclamations, News Releases, and Speeches. Scans of hard copy correspondence as well as email files are linked to corresponding records in the Access databases. One database contains correspondence from Bredesen's first term in office while the other contains correspondence from his second term. It should be noted that not all correspondence is accessible through the databases. Some items have been moved to a restricted folder because the scans contain sensitive information such as social security numbers. For these items, redacted originals must be used. In addition, some pieces of correspondence were not scanned. Unscanned items with Access database records mostly occur for earlier correspondence, i.e. 2004 and before.

Series Arrangement:

Electronic Records are arranged with Executive Orders, Proclamations, News Releases, and Speeches files listed in individual folders with the Correspondence databases in a separate folder.

Electronic Location:

H:\TSLA\TSLA\DBFILES\GP56

SERIES VI. -- LEGAL OFFICE

Series Scope and Content:

The Legal Office materials are composed of attorney appointments, attorney fee approvals, materials from various boards and commissions (most notably the Board of Probation and Paroles), clemency materials, executive orders, judicial appointment files, materials related to legislation, litigation files, oaths of office, and proclamations. The correspondence within the Legal Office is primarily interoffice correspondence detailing lawsuits involving state agencies or clemency cases. Important topics covered in the Legal Office files include the American Recovery and Renewal Act, emergency preparedness, Hurricane Katrina, ConnectTEN, Geier lawsuit, John Ford indictment, John B. v. Goetz lawsuit, and the Workers' Compensation Reform Act.

Clemency materials are quite extensive, covering a long list of petitioners and potential applicants. Many high profile clemency seekers have included items. Notable names include Abu-Ali Abdur'Rahman (Boxes 490-493), Sedley Alley (Boxes 493-496), Michael Joe Boyd (Box 496), Edward Jerome Harbison (Boxes 499-500), Teresa D. Harris (Box 500), Steve Henley (Boxes 501-502), Daryl Keith Holton (Box 503), Paul House (Boxes 504-505), Olen "Eddie" Hutchinson (Boxes 505-506), Cecil Johnson (Boxes 506-507), Gaile Owens (Boxes 510-514), Paul Dennis Reid (Boxes 515-516), Stephen Michael West (Boxes 517-518), Philip Ray Workman (Boxes 518-525), and Felicia M. Ybanez (Box 525).

The judicial files within the Legal Office materials contain information regarding judgeships and their selection process in the state of Tennessee. Within these files are judicial applications, letters of recommendation and nonsupport, correspondence to and from applicants, retirement announcements from sitting judges, media reports, oaths of office, and local bar association polls.

The photographs consist mostly of pictures of the governor with legislators when he is signing bills. One item of note is an image of Governor Bredesen with Nashville Mayor Karl Dean and country music star Tim McGraw. The image was taken at the March 22, 2010, T. J. Martell Foundation Honors Gala where Governor Bredesen was presented with a "Lifetime Humanitarian Award."

Approximately one cubic foot of materials in the Legal Office series are completely restricted. Examples of confidential materials include case files, victim impact statements, psychiatric evaluations, disability claims materials, medical information, and litigation materials that contain attorney-client privileged documents, sealed settlement agreements, etc. Restricted materials have been placed at the end of the collection.

Boxes 954 and 955 contain materials that are partially restricted. The boxes hold two oversize panels that depict graphic images of homicide victims and crime scenes. Anyone below the age of 18 years of age may not view these materials (TCA 39-17-911).

SERIES VII. -- LEGISLATIVE FILES

Series Scope and Content:

These materials reflect the daily activity of the Legislative Department. Legislative Files include bills that may contain copies of the legislation, fiscal notes, an analysis of the bill from the Governor's Legislative Department, and any correspondence pertaining to the bill from the Governor's Office. Occasional small gaps in the numbering where no bill copies are available occur. House Bills (HB) during the 2009-2010 General Assembly include only the legislation that passed. General office files and department files are also included. Notable items (Box 772) involve the York Institute in Jamestown, Tennessee.

Series Arrangement:

Bills are arranged numerically by General Assembly with House Bills (HB) occurring first followed by Senate Bills (SB), House Joint Resolutions (HJR), and then Senate Joint Resolutions (SJR). General office files or subject files begin in Box 751 and are arranged alphabetically. Department files begin in Box 772.

SERIES VIII. -- MAIN OFFICE FILES

Series Scope and Content:

Main Office Files are the records that deal with daily functions of the Governor's Office. This series includes a variety of topics that could not be included in other large series in this collection. A large number of the documents can be considered correspondence in nature. Approximately three boxes of correspondence belonged to Deputy Governor David Cooley.

Chronological Files for 2003-2010 include correspondence that staff, Janie Conyers, considered needing special attention from the governor. Chronological Files are found in Boxes 780-805.

The County Reports for 2004-2005 include statistical data compiled by the various departments of state government. County Reports begin in Box 805. The reports give a brief glimpse, usually one page, showing the activity of the department.

Records pertaining to the restoration of the Executive Residence and construction of Conservation Hall are included here. Both projects were somewhat controversial at the time, especially the funding and concept of Conservation Hall. The complete restoration of the Executive Residence was a project of First Lady Andrea Conte. The governor and First Lady lived in their private Nashville residence during the restoration.

The governor's speeches were not included in the transfer of records to the Tennessee State Library and Archives. However, many of them were captured from websites where they were archived electronically and maintained in the Electronic Records Series.

Tennessee Veterans' Home Investigation in Boxes 820-821 represents the investigation of facilities in Murfreesboro, Humboldt, and Knoxville that took place between 2005 and 2008. Issues of inadequate care and other problems are reported.

The oversize box of chronological file materials (Box 952) contains a printing plate, newspaper, a map of the Cummins Falls area, a photograph of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, an award to Governor Bredesen from Música Caliente (Nashville's Latin Music Street Fair), a National Governors Association Award, and an original piece of artwork by Knoxville News Sentinel political cartoonist Charlie Daniel, among other things. One noteworthy item is the metal printing plate. The plate is for the July 15, 2008, "Special Edition" of the Chattanooga Times Free Press. The newspaper is a printing from the plate. The front-page article is related to Volkswagen building a plant in Chattanooga. Another item of particular interest is the original color cartoon by Charlie Daniel. It depicts a man in a hospital gown reading a newspaper about the passage of "Cover Tennessee" as Governor Bredesen runs away with the man's undershorts. Charlie Daniel has signed the art "To Governor B From The VMC and Me - Charlie Daniel."

Series Arrangement:

The majority of the documents are correspondence that has been divided into subheadings alphabetically. The date range is 1996-2010. However, the majority of correspondence was written between 2002 and 2010. The 1996 documents consist of one folder pertaining to a court case found in Box 810. Larger subheadings include Chronological Files, County Reports, Deputy Governor, Conservation Hall Project, Executive Residence Restoration, Open Appointments, Public Record Requests, Speeches, Tennessee Housing Development Authority, Tennessee Veterans' Home Investigation, and Transition Team Correspondence. Original order was maintained for all materials within the chronological files. Consequently, dates for these folders were taken from the working file in the Governor's Office and may not reflect the actual dates of materials in the folder.

SERIES IX. -- SCHEDULING OFFICE

Series Scope and Content:

The Scheduling Office was responsible for arranging public appearances for the governor. This series includes invitations and materials describing the events requesting an appearance by the governor. Many more invitations were received than could be accepted. Some requests are from individuals wishing a personal audience with the governor to discuss private problems related to state matters. Often a surrogate such as a commissioner would be assigned to substitute for the governor if he was not available. This series does not include the governor's complete daily schedule. The most complete set of scheduled events is for 2007 and are found in the Scheduling Decision reports.

Series Arrangement:

This series was arranged as close to the original order as possible. General office documents found first have been arranged alphabetically and placed in folders. The date range is from November 2002. It begins with the transition into office after the election and ends in January 2011.

Invitation files found last comprise the bulk of this series and were maintained by using a numerical system. Each invitation was assigned a number. A cover sheet was completed and attached to the invitation to include the index number and pertinent information such as date, event name, host, time requirements, a brief description of the event, or any specific requests such as a speech or a presentation. The index numbers range from 1 to 17,590. There is a major gap in the index. The gap is from 11,075 to 11,403. The index to this numerical system has not been found.

SERIES X. -- AUDIO/VISUAL MATERIALS

Series Scope and Content:

Consists of audio and video materials that were received by the Governor's Office. Some of the items were randomly sent by concerned citizens to either highlight a problem in their area or to gain the governor's endorsement for a musical performance created by the sender. There are also several items related to the attempt to stop the execution of inmates Philip Workman (Boxes 942-944 and 950-951) and Sedley Alley (Boxes 943 and 950) as well as clemency related materials for Paul House (Box 950), Bill (William G.) Allen (Box 936), Cecil Johnson Jr. (Boxes 938, 945, and 950), Abu-Ali Abdur' Rahman (Boxes 942 and 950), and Teresa D. Harris (Box 944).

Notable items related to old-time as well as current country music are included. The materials consist of a recording of a press conference with Garth Brooks (Box 936), an audio CD by Kathy Mattea titled Coal (Box 937), an audio CD by David Ball titled Heartaches By The Number (Box 937), an audio CD by Dolly Parton (for the Great Smoky Mountains National Park 75th Anniversary) titled Sha-Kon-O-Hey! Land of Blue Smoke (Box 939), an audio CD by Billy Womack titled Down At The Barber Shop (Box 937), and an audio CD by Uncle Dave Macon titled Uncle Dave At Home (Box 940). A phonograph album of the song Good Time by Alan Jackson is also contained in this series. The vinyl record was sent to Governor Bredesen as part of an invitation to the 2009 ASCAP (American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers) Awards ceremony.

Items related to the 9-11 attacks (Boxes 943 and 950), Osama bin Laden (Box 943), the John F. Kennedy assassination (Box 946), the effectiveness and safety of flu vaccines (Box 937), and the Governor's Awards in the Arts (Box 947) should be mentioned. A 2008 crime statistics report by the TBI (Tennessee Bureau of Investigation) related to crime on college campuses is incorporated into Box 937. Additionally, there are several items related to projects in which various school groups were involved. Perhaps the most striking of these is an audio CD titled Here Comes Rudolph with all His Shoes Off from the Tennessee School for the Blind (Box 937).

Most of the items received by the Governor's Office also included correspondence. References to the accompanying correspondence are included with the item description when available.

There are several media formats included in this collection. They include audiocassette, compact disc, digital video disc, computer floppy discs, a phonograph album, and VHS videocassettes. The Tennessee State Library and Archives has equipment available to review all formats of material in this collection.

The items in this series are stored in a climate-controlled vault. Due to the strict temperature and humidity conditions of the vault, a 24-hour notice is required before these materials may be used. Such materials require an acclimation period to normal room conditions prior to their use.

Series Arrangement:

Items in this series are arranged alphabetically by media type. The only exception is the phonograph album because it is stored in a separate box. The phonograph album is listed last in the inventory below.
